"HONOR OF THE RANGE"
Two Reel Western Drama
Featuring Leo Maloney

* * *

Billy Hall is missing without leave and the chief of the forest rangers wants to charge him with desertion. Bud Kirkland, another ranger, feels that something is wrong, and discovers a letter, torn in bits, asking Billy to return to 'Betty', at the V Bar ranch.

Bud asks the chief to allow a few more days and goes off in pursuit. Arriving at the ranch, he sees Billy ride away and talks to the girl, who proves to be his sister. Billy goes to town where he gambles, loses and accuses the winner of having rustled his cattle.

During the game Bud enters, but can do nothing with him. Billy then rides away and in rounding up some of his cattle, the rustlers shoot him from ambush. Bud arrives, and after a gun battle in which he is shot, he gets the two rustlers, just as the sheriff and Betty appear.

It all looks as though Billy has done the battling and Bud drives off, happy that he has left a comrade to be acclaimed a hero.
